

When Life Broadships Your Homeschool

Vicki Bentley

You had a plan...but then it happened. When life broadships you, the most important – and difficult – thing to do is re-establish “normal.”

Start with a routine.

Make a short list of what has to be done.

Be consistent with meals.

What does this have to do with homeschooling? If your home isn't functioning, your “school” won't either, so....

Make a plan, starting where you are NOW.

Set goals.

Specific “train wrecks” include:

Chronically ill parent

Chronically ill child

Caregiving for relative

Back to work

Pregnancy/new baby

Pray John 17 over your children. God is the Author of new beginnings!
